Residency Evaluation

Are you a legal Wisconsin resident and/or do you claim legal Wisconsin residence for tuition purpose?

- No
- Yes

Residency Information

The following information is needed to determine your residence status for tuition purposes. In most cases, students who qualify for resident status are charged a lower tuition rate than non-resident students. The University is required to conduct a residence review even for students applying for flat-fee programs. Therefore, it is to your benefit to complete the following application as completely and accurately as possible.

Please note that even if you are an independent adult who has not lived with your parents for many years, your parents' information may have bearing on your residence status, so it may be to your benefit to provide their information, if requested.

Finally, by submitting this information, you are certifying that the information you have provided here is true and complete to the best of your knowledge and that you understand that inaccurate information may affect your enrollment, tuition, or financial aid status.

Have you, your spouse or parents recently moved to Wisconsin to begin full-time employment, or do you expect to do so before the beginning of the term for which you are applying?

- No
- Yes

MN Reciprocity

A tuition reciprocity agreement exists between Wisconsin and Minnesota. This agreement stipulates that residents of Minnesota can attend Wisconsin institutions in approved programs and be assessed the approved reciprocity tuition rate, plus segregated fees assessed all students. Students in the professional programs of the Schools of Medicine and Veterinary Medicine, however, are not covered under the reciprocity program.
